The PA Conference Endorses Congressman Brian Fitzpatrick for Re-Election

Camp Hill, PA — [December 4, 2025] — The Pennsylvania Conference of Teamsters, representing more than 95,000 hardworking men and women across the Commonwealth, is proud to announce its endorsement of Congressman Brian Fitzpatrick for re-election to the United States House of Representatives.

Congressman Fitzpatrick has consistently demonstrated his commitment to protecting the dignity of work and defending the rights of union families. His bipartisan record and willingness to stand with labor have earned the trust of Teamsters across Pennsylvania.

“Congressman Fitzpatrick has proven that he understands the struggles of working families. He has stood with us on critical issues — from protecting pensions to ensuring safe working conditions — and he has shown that he values the contributions of union members to Pennsylvania’s economy,” said William Hamilton President of the Pennsylvania Conference of Teamsters.

Congressman Fitzpatrick’s Labor Record:

- Defending Collective Bargaining Rights: Fitzpatrick has supported legislation that strengthens the ability of workers to organize and negotiate fair contracts.
- Protecting Pensions: He has worked across party lines to safeguard retirement security for union members and their families.
- Standing with Public Transit & Infrastructure Workers: Fitzpatrick has backed funding measures that protect union jobs and ensure safe, reliable transportation for Pennsylvania communities.
- Championing Worker Safety: He has consistently advocated for stronger workplace protections to keep men and women safe on the job.

The Pennsylvania Conference of Teamsters believes Congressman Fitzpatrick’s leadership is vital to ensuring that working men and women remain at the center of our nation’s economic future. His record proves that he values the contributions of union members and is committed to protecting the rights and livelihoods of Pennsylvania families.

“We are proud to stand with Congressman Fitzpatrick. His partnership with labor demonstrates that he is a true ally of working people, and we urge all Teamster members to support his re-election,” added William Hamilton, President of the PA Conference of Teamsters.
